RSE definitions

Gender

Sex	Babies are assigned a sex when they are born. This is based on their physical features: whether they have a vagina or penis.
Gender	Babies are given a gender when they are born, either male or female. This is based on their sex.

Sexuality

Straight/ heterosexual	This describes a person who is attracted to people who are the opposite sex to them. For example, a man who is attracted to a woman.
Gay	This describes a person who is attracted to people of the same sex. It usually refers to men who are attracted to other men.
Lesbian	This describes women who are attracted to other women.
Bisexual	This describes a person who is attracted to people of either sex.